

Ancnoc 12 Year Old Single Malt Scotch Whisky

Pale gold with a pale straw hue. Caresses the nose with the softest of whisky scents and one with seamless integration. Almost floral in its delivery, less the intensity. Aromas of honey and toasty grains. Some fruitiness emerging (baked apple?) Is there a whisper of peat too?

Good concentration on the palate with spices adding presence to the vanilla and grassy malt. Late juicy burst. Concludes dry and light with cocoa, gentle spices and an understated fruitiness. Subdued but persistent aftertaste. A classic Speyside profile that will beguile some and leave others wanting
