

Archie Rose Rye Malt

Appearance: Amber with copper highlights.

Nose: A tantalising tension between sweet and savoury. Transports you to a carpenter's workshop by the coast with the aroma of vanilla eclairs and sherbet. A second pass continues with sun-dried apricots, muesli and rice pudding. Time in the glass reveals cola, creaming soda and toffee.

Palate: Peach cobbler with vanilla ice cream and caramel sauce.

Finish: A subtle combination of caraway seed with sweet spices. A hint of salinity balances the sweetness.
