

Edradour Ballechin 10 Year Old Cask Strength Single Malt Scotch Whisky

The emphasis is on earthy peat rather than the maritime kind: Honey and toffee thread through the smoke, nuanced with old leather, smoked ham, cigar box, lucerne mulch, grain store and mint chocolate. Vibrant, fresh and juicy on entry building towards a deluge of sooty peat, chili chocolate, dried herbs and late peppermint in the final stages. This is about everything you could want in a heavily peated dram.
