

The Irishman Founders Reserve Irish Whiskey

Polished copper. Quite shy in the opening stages, gradually releasing aromas of wood shavings, black peppercorns and after ample aeration, sweet yet understated scents of gobstopper, fresh sawn American oak and dried apple. Breezy, middle weighted palate offers suggestions of oatmeal, honey, caramel and cream tea biscuits followed by a medium long, gently warming, and drying aftertaste.

