

Old Pulteney 12 Year Old Single Malt Scotch Whisky

Clear, pale gold appearance with a pale straw hue. A minor Sulphur note is evident but it lingers underneath light, salty, peppery malt that leaves one with an overall impression not dissimilar to fino / manzanilla sherry. The aromas sweeten slightly with aeration releasing hints of fruit. The palate builds into a medium dry, biscuity, grassy profile with a pleasantly spicy burst. Finish is dry and salty.

Concludes crisp and fresh with delicate bready notes followed by a late sulphury tang that's subtle enough to be a complexing factor.
