

Suntory Kakubin The Premium Blended Japanese Whisky

Nose is clean and reasonably mellow - no hard hitting grain present. Lots of greenery: various plants and fresh rich green plant leaves. There is a mixture of light floral scents. Taste, spicy oak, minerals, bitter (almost verging on bitter Goya), and faint barley sugar. Grain is evident here. There is chamomile and representations of horseradish. Finish is very moderate to long in length.

