

Wolfburn Northland Single Malt Scotch Whisky

Very pale straw colour. Lean and lighter styled aromatics include scents of cracker biscuit, cereal, dried grass and hints of pepper. Entry is delicate, vanilla wafer-like. Mid palate is bolder, spicier, grainy, medium dry. Finish adds light malt sweetness plus suggestions of hay and wax. A pleasing aperitif style that bears resemblances to a blend.

